Who we are

Aldworth James & Bond is an award-winning and highly experienced fabrication company. We offer specialist manufacturing for custom builds and installations.

Our focus is on delivering projects safely, to programme and within budget for our clients. We are a reliable creative organisation, operating with commercial awareness and team ambition.

Our approach

Production is at the heart of what we do at Aldworth James & Bond. We provide designers and architects with the means to progress their ideas from concept to technical build stage by creating the crucial link between design and manufacture.

For principal contractors, our professional working methods and compliance ensures a smooth production phase and project delivery.

Our team

The health, safety and wellbeing of everyone who works with and for Aldworth James & Bond is hugely important. We've worked hard on creating a safe, creative and enjoyable environment in which to work – this includes our workshops, office and on site. We feel that happy and cared for staff deliver the best work.

Aldworth James & Bond's attention to detail and fast response were crucial to the successful delivery of our major project at London Design Festival.

Petra Schmidt, Project manager, London Design Festival
